CVMA® Policy 7-5-13 Rev C

MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

SUBJECT: CVMA CHAIN OF COMMAND (CoC)

1. IAW CVMA By-Laws, all members will abide by this policy in order to maintain the Association's viability and order. Additionally, the policy effectively continues the CVMA tradition of structure and order; thereby remaining connected to our military roots.
2. CVMA Chain of Command:

3. EXCEPTIONS:

- a. APPLICATIONS: Chapter Secretaries may contact the State Representative and the State Representative/State Secretary may contact the NSEC directly regarding processing of applications.
 - b. BY DIRECTION: The established CoC may direct an exception for specific circumstances (i.e. the Chapter SAA coordinating directly with the State SAA and the State SAA coordinating directly with the NSAA for matters involving discipline).
 - c. BY ASSIGNMENT: Members assigned to National/Regional Committees may participate in designated committee functions (i.e. BLCP Committee, Voting Committee, etc.).
4. It is the duty of FM/AUX/SUP members at all levels to utilize their CoC for all requests and official communication within the CVMA. Willful disregard of this policy letter could result in disciplinary action.
5. The POC for this policy is the NSAA.
